Dental Update Privilege Price Promise

Dear Reader

As a valued subscriber to Dental Update we are delighted to reward you with a Privilege Price Promise on many of your necessary everyday dental products and some exciting new technologies from Claudius Ash.

Claudius Ash was the very first dental dealer in the UK. Founded in 1820 the company is still going from strength to strength almost 190 years later! And its new association with Plandent UK has created a new UK distribution centre and enhanced many of our customer service offers. None more so than the new Dental Update Privilege Price Promise.

Benefits for you

The benefit of this new scheme lies in the fact that your Dental Update Privilege Price Manager at Claudius Ash will act for you almost as a personal shopper. Providing you with lists of dental products to your basic specifications and preferences tied to a pricing deal which promises to add real financial benefit to your status as a Dental Update subscriber.

All you need to do is to telephone Chandni Dosa on 0500 500 322 or email her at chandni.dosa@plandent.co.uk and quote your Dental Update subscriber password. You will then be passed to your Dental Update Privilege Price Manager who will work with you to put together a list of 15 – 20 of your favourite products at an unbeatable Personal Privilege Price.
